President: I think the rule is perfectly clear on the subject.

Rajyasevapravina G. Parameswaran Pillai: He can move it at the next session.

Mr. N. Narayana Kurup: But the House can permit me to move it now.

President: The rule is clear on the subject. If the member when called on is absent, the resolution standing in his name shall be considered to have been withdrawn. As a matter of fact the honourable member can move it at the next session. Government are going to appoint a committee to go into the question because some legislation will have to be undertaken. I am afraid, I cannot allow the resolution to be moved.

RESOLUTION No. 4.

Issue of notices to the agriculturists.

Mr. N. Narayana Kurup: "This Council recommends to Government that all notices, orders, forms intending to convey information &c., to the agriculturists shall be in Malayalam."

സർ, തിരുവിതാംകൂറിലെ കർഷകർ എല്ലാവരും വിദ്യാഭ്യാസം സിദ്ധിച്ചവരല്ല. അവരിൽ അധികംപേർക്കും ഇംഗ്ലീഷ് ഭാഷയേ അറിഞ്ഞുകൂടാ.

Mr. K. G. Kunjukrishna Pillai: Sir, the resolution has been accepted by the Government.

Mr. N. Narayana Kurup: In that case, I do not move it.

President: Government have accepted the resolution.

Mr. Mohamed Mustafa: Sir it may be published in Tamil also.

Rajyasevapravina G. Parameswaran Pillai: So far as the Revenue Department is concerned, all notices issued from Pakuthy Cutcherries and taluk offices are in Malayalam in Central and North Travancore and in Malayalam or Tamil in South Travancore.

President: In any case, Government have accepted the resolution. They will be published in Malayalam or Tamil as the case may be.

Elections to the Economic Development Board, the Food Advisory Committee and one member to the Senate will take place, after lunch.

The business for the day being over, the House will now adjourn sine die.

The House adjourned at 1-20 P. M.
